(individually and collectively, "Third Party") to obtain, share, release, discuss, and otherwise provide to and with each other public and non-public personal information contained in or related to the mortgage loan of the Borrower. This information may include (but is not limited to) the name, address, telephone number, social security number, credit score, income, government monitoring information, loss mitigation application status, account balances, program eligibility, and payment activity of the Borrower. I consent to the disclosure of my personal information and the terms of any agreements under the Making Home Affordable or Hardest Hit Fund Programs by Servicer or State HFA to the U.S. Department of the Treasury or their agents in connection with their responsibilities under the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act.

Servicer will take reasonable steps to verify the identity of a Third Party, but has no responsibility or liability to verify the identity of such Third Party. Servicer also has no responsibility or liability for what a Third Party does with such information.

Before signing this Third-Party Authorization, beware of foreclosure rescue scams!

- It is expected that a HUD-approved housing counselor will work directly with your lender/mortgage servicer.
- Please visit <http://makinghomeaffordable.gov/counselor.html> to verify you are working with a HUD-approved housing counseling agency.
- Beware of anyone who asks you to pay a fee in exchange for a counseling service or modification of a delinquent loan.

This Third-Party Authorization is valid (1) when signed by all borrowers and co-borrowers named on the mortgage and (2) until the Servicer receives a written revocation signed by any borrower or co-borrower.
